

Georgett Johnson is a graduate of Kansas State University and holds a BA in Family Life and Community Services with a minor in Leadership Studies and American Ethnic Studies. Ms. Johnson also holds a Master of Divinity from Hood Theological Seminary. Ms. Johnson serves as Administrative Assistant to the Youth and Young Adult Department at the congregation where she regularly plans events and creates and implements curriculum. As a result of her educational background and over 20 years combined experience working with youth and utilizing her gifts of administration Ms. Johnson is a great asset to Bethlehem Center

Ms. Johnson currently serves as the Program Director for Out of School Time for Bethlehem Center of Charlotte. She most recently worked as a Direct Care Provider for Inreach providing personal care and educational assistance to people with special needs. Prior to that role, Ms. Johnson served as a Site Coordinator for the YWCA of Central Carolinas in Union County where she operated in the role of overseeing an Afterschool and Summer Camp Program.

Ms. Johnson is motivated by her passion for youth and families and her motto is that everyone has the ability in them to be a great leader and it is her passion to empower and encourage them to be those great leaders they are destined to be.

“We cannot always build the future for our youth, but we can build our youth for the future”

Franklin D. Roosevelt