

Mr. Brian Luckadoo
Chief Financial Officer
Bethlehem Center of Charlotte

Mr. Brian Luckadoo was born and raised in Casar, NC, a small town, where he grew up on a farm with his parents and his grand-mother. Brian was an outstanding student and scholar who was introduced and embraced community service as president of his school's Key Club organization and played a role as an officer of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Brian started school at the University of Carolina in Chapel Hill where he studied medicine and took a break from school to focus on family. After moving closer to home in Lincoln County he went back to school at Gardner-Webb University where he studied finance and accounting graduating Cum Laude and was inducted into the Alpha Sigma Lambda Honor Society.

Brian joined the team at the Bethlehem Center in 2007 as a member of the accounting team, where he and the staff worked diligently to reorganize and restructure the accounting department, financial reporting and communication. Brian's strong communication skills and leadership moved him into the role of Chief Financial Officer after 9 years on the accounting team.

Currently residing in Lake Wylie, South Carolina, Brian is married his soul mate Tonya, with who they are raising their 3 children. Brian spends much of his time at home working with churches, various youth programs and volunteers as a Boy Scout Leader.

Brian sees the need of community involvement and outreach. He is dedicated to Bethlehem Center knowing that every day he and his staff are there to help children reach their goals and expand their horizons with education and attainable opportunities. Brian is helping to make families and children come first and turning the engines of change and upward mobility.

For those wanting to speak with Brian, he may be reached by phone at 704-371-7447 or by email at bluckadoo@bethlehemcenter.org.